ECC: Concepts of Identity

Personal Structures - Identities, supported by the European Cultural Centre Italy, is a biennial art exhibition returning for 2019. This year's edition looks to the questions that define our times.

A: Where did the exhibition initiative come from and how will this edition differ from others?

ECC: Personal Structures is an international contemporary art platform which started in 2003 by bringing

PERSONAL STRUCTURES – Identities

by SARA BUOSO • 23 MAY 2019 • REVIEWS

The European Cultural Institute presents, in coincidence with the 58th International Art Exhibition – La Biennale di Venezia, the fifth edition of the PERSONAL STRUCTURES – Identities format, an exhibition in which contemporary art forms such as architecture, design, and visual arts converge, as in this case, starting a happy dialogue between established and emerging masters. A complex and cosmopolitan panorama is presented by the exhibition, which asks the artists to rethink the relationship between space, time and existence in that section that undersigns the I in relation to the Other. It follows a well-articulated reflection on how to think about our identity in increasingly multicultural, transnational, digital, and global contexts. Introduced by a rich program of performative and sound events to underline a heartfelt and lively presence in the lagoon, PERSONAL STRUCTURES – Identities focuses on current issues and asks to rethink art, ethics, aesthetics, politics, and their possible narratives, through positions that are never extreme, but clear in the lines of thought.

At Palazzo Bembo, the British artist Lincoln Townley presents the Behind The Mask series of paintings, which portray ‘the human
